- creating an open, hospitable and welcoming community;
- embracing diversity, celebrating the giftedness of each person

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In today's Gospel we find that God is a God of the living, and this is indeed the core of our hope. Jesus has risen and is with us, therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

For assistance please call 707-421-5488.

OFFICE CLOSED

The parish office will be closed this Friday, November 11 in observance of Veterans Day. May God bless all who serve our country.

REMEMBERING OUR DEPARTED

Beginning with All Souls Day, the month of November is a special time to remember our departed loved ones in our prayers. Offering envelopes with space to include the names of those you wish to be remembered at our Masses are available in the narthex. Please drop off your envelope with your donation in the collection basket or at the parish office. The office will gather and place the All Souls Day envelopes at the altar.

YOU DESERVE OUR BIG THANK YOU

As you all know, our projector and the screen were out for almost three months due to its age and difficulty to get it repaired. Finally it is back. Ms. Becky Dela Cruz, John Gloudeman, Joe Sison and James Hunter deserve our special recognition and thanks for working together as a team and getting it finally fixed. Also, for the past couple of weeks our church was freezing cold as we had issues with our HVAC. Finally because of the very timely effort made by our office Manger with the help of Mr. David Stickle, we were able to at least fix the problem for the time being while looking into a permanent solution and problem solving. If it was not for Mr. Stickle taking the lead in this project, we would still be without heat. Thank you both for sharing your time, talents and help to find a solution. To each of you, parishioners, we sincerely thank you for your patience and support.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS

The next baptism preparation class will be held on Wednesday, November 16 at 6:30 pm in the church meeting room. This class is a requirement for both parents and godparents prior to a child's baptism. The class is free for registered parishioners and $25 for non-parishioners. Please sign up in advance at the parish office.

COLLECTION FOR THE AMS

Next week our parish will take up the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services (AMS). The ministries offered by the AMS benefit those who serve in all six branches of the U.S. Armed Forces, are enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders—and their families. It is the mission of this Archdioceses that they be able to seek sacramental preparation for baptism, confirmation, first Communion, penance, and marriage—the AMS receives no federal funding.
