Second Sunday in Ordinary Time — January 15, 2023

REFLECTION

We call this period of the liturgical year “Ordinary Time,” but this time after Christmas is not ordinary at all, for it is now that we learn about the first days of Jesus’ public life. In today’s Gospel, John testifies that the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus when John baptized him, meaning that the Holy Spirit joined in Christ’s entire mission. The Holy Spirit descended upon us in our own baptism as well. May we be conscious of that divine presence as we join in Christ’s mission during our own ordinary time.

-St. Francis of Assisi

REFLECTIONS FROM FR. JOHN HEALY

Father, Abba, we thank You for the gift of this day. The foggy , drizzly day outside can touch difficult, dark, foggy parts of ourselves. But, foggy, Winter days are necessary too in the rhythm that is nature.

God of all life, You teach us from nature that we need to make the foggy, difficult winters in our lives times not of sadness or discouragement, but rather, like the cocoon whose new life germinates and eventually bursts forth in the dazzling beauty of the butterfly. There has to be a caterpillar before there is a butterfly. Help me use the winter times of sickness, struggle and even dismay, to pause...to stop...to let something deep in me come to life, my true self...my inheritance as a child of God. Let the winters of my life bring about a better me, a more loving, caring human being who is not afraid to pay the price of authentic loving. May it make me a true child of God.

Thank you Father, for fog.
Thank you Father, for Winter.
Thank you Father, for life.
Thank you Father, for this day and this night.

-Fr. John Healy

A PRAYER FOR OUR PRIESTS

John Cardinal O'Connor, March 1995)

Lord Jesus, we your people pray to You for our priests.

You have given them to us for OUR needs.
We pray for them in THEIR needs.

We know that You have made them priests in the likeness of your own priesthood.

You have consecrated them, set them aside, anointed them, filled them with the Holy Spirit, appointed them to teach, to preach, to minister, to console, to forgive, and to feed us with Your Body and Blood.

Yet we know, too, that they are one with us and share our human weaknesses.

We know too that they are tempted to sin and discouragement as are we, needing to be ministered to, as do we, to be consoled and forgiven, as do we.

Indeed, we thank You for choosing them from among us, so that they understand us as we understand them, suffer with us and rejoice with us, worry with us and trust with us, share our beings, our lives, our faith.

We ask that You give them this day the gift You gave Your chosen ones on the way to Emmaus: Your presence in their hearts, Your holiness in their souls, Your joy in their spirits.

And let them see You face to face in the breaking of the Eucharistic bread.

We pray to You, O Lord, through Mary the mother of all priests, for Your priests and for ours. Amen.
