EASTER MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear St. Joseph Parish Family and friends,

I, along with Fr. Dandou, Dcn. Sexton and our Parish Staff wish you and your family a Happy EASTER !!!!!
Let's pray for the restoration of peace everywhere.

Jesus bodily resurrection and our belief in the Risen Lord is the foundation of our faith. It brings us meaning and purpose beyond our imagination with the promise of our own resurrection and eternal life in heaven. I invite you on this Easter Sunday to share with your family at the dinner table the story of how you celebrated EASTER while you were growing up with your parents. How faith reigned your homes and lives. It may be a great way of acknowledging how faith in the Risen LORD impacts and shapes our present life to look beyond and to live our faith as guided by the teachings given to us through HIS Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

The world we live in is not perfect and we struggle at times with what is going on around us. There is a lot of pain, sorrow, and tears we witness. But for us who believe, this Easter gives us hope and encouragement, reminding us that life is worth living with Jesus because beyond the cross, there is resurrection waiting for us with the Risen Lord.

I also take this opportunity to thank my entire ministry team here at St. Joseph. Please also join me to thank our parish staff, various councils, ministries, volunteers and every family and individuals who are part of our faith community and their ardent desire to follow the Lord through their faithful and faith-filled sacramental life and its grace.

I pray for you and wish you a joyous, faith-filled Easter. May the Peace of the Risen Lord come upon you to cover you with faith, hope, love, peace and Resurrection Joy. Happy Easter.

Sincerely in the Lord,
Fr. Joshy Mathew, Pastor
