REFLECTION

Today we are reminded that Jesus is the Good Shepherd, committed to caring for his sheep through every danger, difficulty, and trauma. He told his disciples that he would lay down his life for his sheep. Indeed, this is exactly what he did. By laying down his life for our sins, he conquered death and raises us to eternal life with him. Let us allow the risen Lord to guide us to the idyllic pasture of salvation.

OUR HEARTFELT APPRECIATION AND GRATITUDE TO OUR ST. JOSEPH PARISH KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Dear Grand Knight and members of the Knights of Columbus family,

Happy Easter to you all.

On behalf of St. Joseph Parish, let me take this opportunity to sincerely thank you for helping organize and execute the plans for a successful parish Crab feed dinner fundraiser and Parish ministry Volunteer appreciation dinner on Saturday night, April 13th, 2024. Your hard work, along with your dedication and commitment to help serve the parish community and service to the parish families, was very much visible in and through your committed efforts which God brought your efforts to fruition.

The community that gathered really enjoyed and had a fun time that evening. The crab, brisket and all the food served were delicious. It was amazing to see the community gather and come together after a long gap and after the Covid shut down.

You made a difference and I sincerely thank each of you, especially Dennis Tremethick taking the leadership as Grand Knight; Rosanna Neves and the Bell family for cooking the delicious food; each of you who volunteered in the kitchen and in the banquet hall; our Faith formation students who helped serve; the Maramba Band; and Our Parish Staff lead by Mrs. Grimm. Without your help and support this would not have happened and you made it possible for the parish. Your presence is a true testimony of how much you care and love our parish and our faith life. This was also an event where the parish family came together to meet, greet, enjoy fellowship, renew friendship, get to know some of our parish family members, and share in the agape meal which strengthens the ties of our parish community. Thank you. God bless and reward you for all that you do for the glory of the Lord. I invite the parish community to join me to express our gratitude to the members of our Knights of Columbus, to our Ministry volunteers and to our dedicated parish staff. THANK YOU! HAPPY EASTER!

Sincerely in the Risen Lord,
Fr. Joshy
